A ONE DOLLAR HORSE.

Essex Junction Man Likely to Be Tried for Driving the Animal.

Burlington, Nov. 21.—Humane Officer John Fuller got a Sunday call yesterday from Essex Junction to attend to the case of a horse whose condition seemed to justify a little humane work even though it was Sunday. A young man named Parizo had bought a horse for one dollar with the understanding that he was to kill the same, the animal having passed its days of usefulness, being crippled and old, and poor. Parizo, however, refused to give the horse up and would not sell it to Mr. Fuller for $1.00 to dispose of. Mr. Fuller then threatened to prosecute Parizo. He afterward learned in the village that the horse had been in harness the day before. There will probably be a hearing in the case some day this week. The humane officer had ten calls yesterday to attend to cases of cruelty.

TO CURTAIL SLATE OUTPUT.

Vermont and New York Manufacturers to Run Shorter Hours.

Rutland, Nov. 21.—Owing to an over-production of roofing slate the pea-green slate manufacturers in the vicinity of Poultney, Vt., and Granville, N.
Y., have voted unanimously to cut the working day to eight hours and to work only five days a week. The new schedule will begin today.

It is estimated that there are 100,000 squares of unsold roofing slate now lying on the banks between Poultney and Granville. The quarry managers deemed it necessary to cut the production in order to keep the quarries open through the winter. The supply will greatly exceed the demand for at least three months.

A New Agricultural Paper.

Burlington, Nov. 22.—Burlington is to have a new paper, a monthly, to be called "The United States Farmer and Agricultural Magazine." It will begin publication about December 15, with 24 pages at a cost of one dollar a year. It will be devoted to agriculture, market and trade reports, stories and home features, and it will be illustrated.

Annual Thanksgiving Social and Dance.

The amusement committee of Clan Gordon No. 12 have been busy for the last four weeks, making arrangements for their annual social and dance, which will be held in Hale's pavilion, Wednesday evening, Nov. 23rd. The committee have neither spared time nor money to secure the best talent to be found in the city of Barre. Mr. William Goodfellow's serial comic songs are worth going a long way to hear, and it is seldom that one has a chance to hear one of his ability as an entertainer. Mr.
Henry Davidson will also make his first appearance before a Barre audience and will no doubt make a favorable impression upon all who hear him. He is undoubtedly a singer of the first water.
Mr. John Kesock needs no introduction as a comedian, neither does Mrs. Peter Mutch as a reader. This is but a few of the artists, but watch the Times Saturday for the programme in full. Make no other engagement for Wednesday evening, for if you do you will surely be sorry for it. The concert will start at 8 o'clock sharp, after which tea, coffee, sandwiches and assorted cake will be served. Then the hall will be cleared for dancing, when a programme of twenty dances will be gone through, to music furnished by Gilbertson's orchestra. Admission to the whole business is only fifty cents for adults and twenty-five cents for children.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

An interesting programme has been arranged for a citizens' Thanksgiving service at the M. E. church for Wednesday evening of this week. The programme will consist of songs, readings, recitation, addresses appropriate to the occasion, and a debate by some of our most talented men and women.

A CASE OF IT.

Many More Like It In Barre.

The following case is but one of many similar occurring daily in Barre. It is an easy matter to verify its correctness.
Surely you cannot ask for better proof than such a conclusive evidence.

Mrs. Wm. L. Huntington (W. L.
Huntington, granite cutter, address High Holborn, says: "A friend insisted upon my using Doan's Kidney Pills.
From the amount of faith he evinced in the remedy I was induced to go to E. A. Drown's drug store for a box. I badly required just such a remedy as Doan's Kidney Pills proved to be, for I had been annoyed with kidney complaint for an indefinite period. The pain across my back and hips was very severe. If I stooped or straightened after stooping and when the sharp twinges were not in evidence, there was a continual dull aching. Added to the backache was a trouble with the kidney secretions, a sure indication that the action of the kidneys in some way must upset. I knew after the completion of the first box, from the direct action of my kidneys, that I had at last got hold of the remedy badly wanted, or I never would have bought a second nor a third box.
To say I am pleased at the results I obtained from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills mildly expresses what I think."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N.
Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
